Hey, what happened to the audio sermons from Jim and Elisabeth Elliot? Good thing I have the one from Jim burned on a CD! I was looking for one from Elisabeth. Did someone contact you and ask you to take them off? Just wondering. Thank you.

15 views, no answers. Well, I suppose Greg is the only one who can really answer this. Maybe should've sent him a pm. But perchance, does anyone else know? =>

Yep, I think so. I also downloaded the sermon of Jim Elliot several months ago: "The feeding of the 5000".

Yes, I had the same question and Greg referred me to the Wheaton archives for the Jim Elliot sermons. You can listen to them here:

I do not know the whereabouts of the Elizabeth Elliot sermons online, but you can order audio cassettes at her website:

Ah! Thank you so much! =>!!!

Yes, I have "Feeding 5,000" too! Was listening to it today in my car during lunch, and then realized that's the very story that was taught at church this weekend. Perfect timing!

yes the reason for this was permission issues. I still want to work on getting them back on the site.
