

Welcome & Intro :: Hello.

Hello. - posted by MSeaman (), on: 2006/3/21 9:15

My name is Melissa. I live in Michigan. I came here looking for sermons by Ravenhill, Katz, Wilkerson, and Tozer. I then came across this forum. I find the topics here very interesting. And the different viewpoints too.

Take care and I'll be seeing you all around the site.

Hi Melissa,

I guess since you posted to the threads before your intro nobody felt the need to say hello. I didn't want you to think that no one cared, so here I am saying glad to know you.

My name is Jeff and I did things backwards also. But then I am not very traditional any more. I look forward to reading more of your posts and getting to know you better.

Be blessed and filled with His love.
Jeff

You are right, I did it backwards. I appreciate your welcome and responses. I always look forward to meeting family!

Bless you all!
