

Alcohol: Better than Mastery

~Other Speakers G-L: Sermon Illustrations II:

A poor old Negro was once a hopeless drunkard, and he tried again and again to get free. Others tried to help him, but he could not get rid of his drunkenness until he was converted. When he was converted there was a wonderful change, and someone said, "So you have got the mastery of the devil at last?" "No," he said, "but I've got the Master of the devil!"

William Moses Tidwell, "Pointed Illustrations."