

Children, Amusing Statements Of: One Who Misunderstood Edith For Eateth

~Other Speakers G-L: Sermon Illustrations II:

One day in London, a group of children were feeling the cold and slipped inside a church to get warm. To their surprise, a service soon began, and the vicar arose to read the lesson. "This man (Christ Jesus) receiveth sinners and eateth with them." After the service, a little girl about 8 years old went up to the vicar. "Please, sir," she said, "I didn't know my name was in the Bible." "And what is your name, little girl?" he asked. "Edith, sir." "No," he said, "Edith doesn't come in the Bible." "Oh, yes sir," she replied, "you read this afternoon that this man Christ Jesus receiveth sinners and EDITH with them."
