

Death: MISTAKEN

~Other Speakers G-L: Sermon Illustrations II:

A wicked man was near the end of life. He had lived in awful sin and had blasphemed God. He was in terrible agony. He lived near some lonely peaks of a high mountain. Just before the end he said, "When I am gone bury me on one of those lonely peaks. Maybe God will overlook me in the last day." No, he was mistaken. God will not forget. John said, "I saw the dead, the small and the great stand before God."
