I am a new member - posted by Chadrick, on: 2006/3/25 19:10

Hello... I am a new member of sermonindex. Actually, I have been on under a number of names. I first started on this site in 2003, but I have been through so much, (including turning away)

So many things have influenced who and what I am today.

I hope to be edified and strengthened here and in my own studies. I hope to have my studies enhanced by viewpoints.

I do not wish to argue, as so many do. I simply want to grow.

Welcome back Chadrick.

Hope you find all you're looking for or what He wants you to find.

Lord Bless.

me again
