God is not good... He is INCREDIBLY GREAT!

Check this out... we have some friends who have really felt a burden to adopt a couple of Korean orphans. Recently they felt God really bearing down on them to pray even more about it. So last week they both set about praying separately about this burden, and then together toward the end of the week. They both concluded that this is God's will... but they couldnt see how it would be possible financially. To adopt a couple of Korean kids it would cost between $30,000 and $40,000 for EACH ONE.

They told no one that they were seeking the Lord about this.

On Friday last week, out of the blue, the husband received a phone call from a guy they had met some months ago. He said "I dont know if you remember me, but God has really laid it on me to give you a call. I remember you told me when we met that your wife and you were praying about adopting a couple of Korean kids. Well, my wife and I started a foundation a couple of years ago to help people out who share our burden for these children. We believe the Lord has instructed us to pay 100% of the financial part of the adoption process. Is this something you're interested in?"

Our friends about fell over.

And this is why I say: God is not good... He is INCREDIBLY GREAT!

Can I get an amen??

Amen, yes He is. I'm thinking of that song that Paster Carter Conlon sings "God is good and his mercy endureth forever ." Amen, he is faithful...
