I just wanted to bump this up because these two messages are life changing. The first message is about how many Christians fall into the trap of serving God in an attempt to gain His favor. The second is about three barren wombs in the Bible and how God used them for His purposes, amazing. Please give these messages a listen.

There are many great preachers of the past on this site, Carter Conlon takes a back seat to none of them, he delivers a powerful message for our day.

In Christ,

Ron

Yes these two sermons are just amazing! I hardly ever listen to a sermon more than once, unless it's been a while, but I've listened to the "barren womb" sermon 4 or 5 times now! It's like the past 3 years of my life... every unanswered question, every fear, every hope, everything I've cried out for were answered in that one sermon! I felt like it was preached just for me!

And the "chopping wood" sermon was just so beautiful. Somewhere towards the end I was just so overwhelmed with emotion that I just started crying. I cried for a good 1/2 hour afterwards simply overcome with the Love and Mercy of our Savior.

I don't know, but I really feel that these 2 sermons have a special anointing. I don't even know if that is possible, but I would highly recommend both! God BLess!
