It is outstanding!

You can visit Ken Connolly's website at:

<http://www.kenconnolly.org/>

His wife apparently runs the online sales as she corresponded with me before I purchased videos from their ministry. He recently passed away. His videos are great.

Two other great videos besides 'The Story of the English Bible' are:

- George Muller, Obstacle to Comfort
- Heal Our Land, The Story of the Ulster Revival in 1859

It is very interesting, I learned a lot from it, well worth a the 45 mins it takes to watch. I burned it onto a VCD and passed it on to the head teasher in my daughters school, she seemed quite happy to receive it, I hope the kids will get to see it (snd some of the teachers)

There used to be a 4 VHS tape set that was wonderful of the Indestructable Book. I would recommend this to everyone. :-)

I just took the time to listen to this wonderful story, that all of us can learn from.

Good job, Combat_Chuck!

God bless,

Stever :-)
