A professor of mine at school has agreed to help me publish a book. I am going to devote a bit of my free time this summer to writing the things I believe the Lord has put on my heart. Come Fall (when he comes down from Boston to Charlotte to teach), he is going to get together with me and work with me on the book. Pray that I would follow the leading of the Spirit, and would speak whatever God puts on my heart, and that I would actually be able to find a Christian book company that would actually print what I write.

excellent brother, I am excited to see what comes to fruition, remember that spurgeon said if a person doesn't quote any one he will never be quoted. keep us all updated on what comes to pass.

How exciting!

I pray that God, through the Power of the Holy Spirit will just pour into your heart, everything that He would have you write, and that each page will Glorify Him, and build up the Body of Christ.

God Bless you.

In Jesus Holy Name.

Nellie :-)
