Dear Sermon Index,

Is there a process to have sermons reviewed and posted to the website?

Kind Regards,

Hi,

Yes, you can send me a private message or email me the links to the sermons on the internet. If they are hard copy materials then firstly provide the speaker name and the intended materials to be submitted before mailing them.

But it is to be known that very few contemporary speakers are considered to be added to the site for a few reasons. One reason is that the focus of the website is vintage older bible teachings, and the second reason would be that there is limited server space at this point and considerations have been quite a large amount, so at this point there is a big backlog of work to be done and sermons to be added.

Great question.
