Canadian College Shooting - posted by enid, on: 2006/9/13 15:31

No doubt by now, some of you would have heard of the shooting at a Canadian college.

Two gunmen opened fire. Both are dead, along with two others, who have yet to be identified.

This just shows, yet again, the wretched state this world is in.

The gunmen have obviously gone to a lost eternity. Let's hope the others that have died knew the Lord. Let's pray for the families, and those that will suffer trauma from this terrible incident.

God bless.
