Tremendous sermons brother, I pray that many will hear them and allow them to radically change their lives. I am glad you are utilizing the "sermon comments" feature on the site.

i hope to many lives will change from these sermons...i listen to sermons usually on the way to work...and after hearing sermons like this im in such kind of "shock" all day working and just amazed at what a god we serve and how endless this journey is... there is so much...i think it was ravenhill who said that the further out in the ocean you get...the bigger it gets..

that is a truth... and these sermons are good to listen to before we "swim" a little farther out... lets all go a little further out...
