

Articles and Sermons :: LORD dare i show you my hands and my feet?

LORD dare i show you my hands and my feet? - posted by hmmhmm (), on: 2006/9/16 10:33

i saw this poem? hymn in my own language... im sure its out there in english to but i translated it as good as i could...

LORD, when IÂ'm tired of working
And your commandments is feeling heavy
And my burden makes me complain
Then show my your pierced hands
Show me thy cross marked hands
My savior show me thy hands

CHRIST, if my feet should slip,
And I stand ready to turn back,
If the thorns of the desert makes me complain,
Then show me thy bleeding feet,
Your nail marked feet

Ohh LORD, dare I show thee my hands and my feet?

Re: LORD dare i show you my hands and my feet? - posted by mamaluk, on: 2006/9/16 11:21

"dare I show thee my hands and my feet?"

In John 17:4, our Lord said:

"I have glorified thee on the earth: I have finished the work which thou gavest me to do. "

The finished work of Christ, remember, It's finished, completed, done, triumphed....no more needed!!

Our own scars, will be nothing, zero, worthless, offensive.....but insult to HIS hands and feets..no need ! :)

Let's just praise and thank The Lord Christ Jesus by singing..."amazing love, how can it be, that Thou my God, shouldst die for me..." 24/7 Amen!

Re: - posted by hmmhmm (), on: 2006/9/16 11:47

yes yes...but there are some work we do... we cant just sit around and wait for him to return and in doing his work ..his will for him..many back away...becuse they have thir own will..his will is that we go out and d o "work",...not work that saves us...

Re: - posted by mamaluk, on: 2006/9/16 12:09

hmmhmm :)

Most certainly, there are works for us to do, and they are the works of faith, in light of your post, which is very touching, but one must believe that the Work on the Cross is all done and can only be done by the Holy Saviour.

Works of faith must not be confused with the works of the flesh. F.Schaeffer said it very well, sometimes, people think that they serve God, but they produce their works in their spirit, these works in turn become the works of the flesh.

Works of faith, are the works done in according to the Word and guided by the Holy Spirit.

In this case, one must have no need to produce or even begin to dapple into that ultimate Work of the Cross. GOD will be much more pleasing, I think, that we praise the Lord and His Cross.

To digress a bit here, you know, in the Phillipines, they have annual festivals that 'devout' men will carry a real cross on their bodies and marched down the villages, in the mind of these men, I'm sure that they think that they are serving Christ, but in my mind, they are robbing the glory from the Cross and blaspheming Christ.

Romans 10:3

For they being ignorant of God's righteousness, and going about to establish their own righteousness, have not submitted themselves unto the righteousness of God.

No no, Christian, this is in no way implying that you are on that course, this is only to remind ourselves to be careful of what are the real works of faith, not only the works of the flesh. No less, I responded to this thread because of the tone and heart on your post, and that is, love, yes, I see your love for Christ, and it encourages me a lot. Thank you so much !

In the Lamb,
mamaluk

Re: - posted by hmmhmm (), on: 2006/9/16 12:16

well you are right in that :) , we cant say enough there are no works that justify us.... he did all that ready... he alone!

thank you lord

Re: - posted by mamaluk, on: 2006/9/16 12:21

In addition to my prior post, hmmhmm, some works of faith include solemn prayers in the Spirit, studying the Word in the Spirit, fellowship with believers in the Spirit, witnessing to the world as the Ambassadors of Christ in the Spirit.

All done in the Holy Spirit through prayers.

I just remember Pilgrim's Progress, have you read it? By John Bunyan?

Ah, it's all too easy to give advice, I need to remind myself of these works and ask God to help me with them too!! :)

Also, I realized that you used that poem in an analogical way, praise God !

Re: - posted by hmmhmm (), on: 2006/9/16 12:48

no i havent read it...herd about it a lot...so i have to look into that one...its bad its hard to get books in my own language...englisch is ok too but still...better in one owns...