Hi!

I have recently, today in fact, received two emails from prasanth@visit4all.com, with a subject line of "MESSAGE FROM YOUR FRIEND SERMONINDEX.NET", and then a short introduction concerning a new ministry entitled "Beloved's Ministries".

I wanted to find out if this is legitimately thought SermonIndex.net, which I periodically have listened to different sermons on, or if this is some type of hacked-in spammer.

Thank you for your ministry, it has been a blessing to me, and I will look forward to your answer concerning this email I have received.

Shalom.....

Stay strong in the Lord.....

I person from: prasanth@visit4all.com has been sending SPAM emails to many members on sermonindex.net please don't acknowledge the emails and delete them. Please let me know if you have any questions or concerns, I have not condoned or allowed this to happen.

Re: - posted by Mekdi (), on: 2006/10/18 6:45

I also have received from them three times. One is on my SI PM, the others on my other account. One is asking for money help and the other is what Greg posted. I also thought it would be good if the saints here are notified and thanks Greg for bringing it forward!

Your sis. Mek.

Re: - posted by hmmhmm (), on: 2006/10/18 8:07

i received this, but since it wasn't from Greg or any of the other moderators... i just deleted it..

Re:, on: 2006/10/18 9:46

Wow this confirms my suspicions also. I have had PM's also asking for money to support orphans in that ministry. I have had to block him from my Messenger.

Very sad.

Re: - posted by Here4Him (), on: 2006/10/19 9:15

Wow, so this guy isn't genuine?

He's been pressing me for money too. I thought his ministry was really in need and was praying about whether i should give- but something didn't seem right.

Re:Think Is it spam Mail from Beloved's Ministries, on: 2006/10/20 3:21

Dear Christian friends,

The Bible says "ASK, and it will be given to you, SEEK, and you will find; KNOCK, and it will be open to you." Matt7: 7.

First of all I greet you in the name of Jesus Christ... Amen.

Friends, I just seen about "Spam Mail from Beloved's Ministries" in the www.sermonindex.net And when I seen about this I fill shame and sad because I never thought that people will think this much bad upon Beloved's Ministries. I know that according to our human nature it is not at all good to send without knowing the person. And it may be spiritual or physical or any thing...

Friends, when we came to see in this world we would find many ministries. But every ministry needs support from children of Christ. In this computer age many peoples are suffering to reach the goals for the glory of God. But some peoples are thinking it is the easy way to get money so they are doing as they like through them all the Christian ministries getting bad name in this society. In this matter one who is really willing to support the ministries they are not at all giving their hand for the work of God. And you may also think about us (Beloved's Ministries®), so you people are mention our letters as a "SPAM MAIL." And Beloved's Ministries® also need to feed the children's & widows and help the needy and poor peoples.

And we know that God will supply all our needs according to the Bible. But when god will supply? When we are doing with faithfully he will supply. And not only this we need prayer and we need to seek his kingdom and knock at the doors of heaven. Then God will use some one from our Christian friends. But as we are working in India we just know peoples from India only and also Indians are poor peoples. And as we using Internet we where find many Christians in sermonindex .net so I just want to share about our ministry and needs with the fellowship of Jesus Christ.

And as I am able to feed only 5 children's and some widows by the help of my family, but I am not able to give other 30 children's. And to feeding this 5 children we are taking borrow from shopkeeper and feeding. As we are unable to feed them, we just seeking peoples and knocking their hearts of the people who can able to help and visit orphans and widows in their trouble. James1: 27.

Anyway I just asking forgiveness to every one who suffered through our letters. So please kindly forgive us and please do not think any bad upon Beloved's Ministries. And kindly pray for our Ministry and me.

MAY GOD BLESS YOU.

I have deleted his account on sermonindex.net and sent him warning messages not to send out any more emails to members.

He could be really in ministry but the method that he is trying to raise $$$ is pretty pathetic. I could email 10,000's of people and beg for money for sermonindex.net and I am sure I could get MUCH response. Please DO NO SEND ANY MONEY to him, I have no way to verify his validity. Nor do I care to now after the method's he has been using and not taking heed to my warnings and requests to stop doing this.

Beloved's Ministries (Anonymous)

I see no credibility in a Christian ministry that conducts it's affairs in this manner.

Then to use the name "Anonymous" as a username is suspicious as well.

My suggestion is that you pray, and rely on God to supply your need, because if you are truly a disciple of Christ, He will meet your need. Failing that my second suggestion would be that you sell that computer with its sophisticated software, and use the funds to buy food.

Just my thoughts. Blessings Greg

I deleted the account that is why it is "anonymous" but I do agree that this ministry and the way they are trying to raise funds is not proper.

Re:, on: 2006/10/22 19:24

Yes, it is unfortunate that the extent of his fellowship with us has been trying to get money from us.

I remember about 2 years ago when I was quite young in my faith, I was truly zealous to spread the Word to as many people as possible. I decided (probably in the flesh) that I wanted to give an evangelical DVD to every room in my dormitory of about 1200, and spread them all over campus. I picked them up from a local church, and now owed them 1500 dollars. I didn't know where to get this money, so I got a phone book and started soliciting churches through the mail. I raised 0 dollars. It wasn't until I realized what it meant to trust God to provide that he rescued me from my debt. The project was a huge failure, and the DVDs were pretty ineffective, but I did learn a huge lesson concerning operating in the flesh, and trusting God to provide necessary funds.

Nonetheless, I do since sincerity in his mission, and think it may be unfair to label him as Satan. He can take his begging elsewhere, but meanwhile we should continue to pray for this man and his ministry (of which the Lord knows its integrity), and at the very least the thousands of orphans whom he was describing that really are left hungry.

Something is not right with this ministry. I've been to the website; it appears to be yet another scam to solicit money under the guise of a Christian ministry. I've seen things like this before. I've gotten four or five different solicitations from these so-called Indian "slum" ministries, all asking for money. On each occasion, I've written back, trying to obtain more specific information concerning their ministry and they never get back to me. This is not of God, and I do not believe these solicitations are due to ignorance or immaturity. These guys are computer savvy and have money-routing systems set up. I believe this is a scam, a ploy to use the name of Christ to trick Westerners to send money to non-verifiable locations. I wouldn't be surprised if they were spamming out of the USA or Canada.

Re:, on: 2006/10/23 0:19

Wow thanks for the info PaulWest. I sure hope what you said isn't true, though it wouldn't surprise me at all.

I tell you...it is going to be such a awful yet awesome day when Christ makes known before all men all of the money-changers and thieves who have stolen from Him. There will be no mercy reserved for them. I am heartbroken but thankful that at our God is just.

Re: - posted by roaringlamb (), on: 2006/10/23 0:47

This is an e-mail from Beloved that I received in reply to one I sent to him.
Make of it what you will.

Praise The Lord.

Â“Visit Orphans and Widows in their troubleÂ” Â– James 1:27.

Dear Christian friends,

Because of poor and needy many people are not at all able to feed their family and some are taking borrow from Rich people to feed their family but due to some region they are unable to give borrow money, because rich peoples always drinking blood from poor peoples. So, many are suicide and they are not able to get any solution to solve the condition which they are facing.

It is happening every day in our family and relatives and neighbors why?

Is it in the beginning? Yes it is in the beginning but God never made such kind of problems. And when god created the world He made it every thing Good but man disobeyed His words and started to do the sin against Him.

And the sin is Killing every human nature unspecific condition. And men became a selfish so every body want create their own Kingdom for that people killed each other then finally one man get the kingdom and it goes to battle between Kingdoms. But many are became a widows, orphans, destitute & homeless. Even though it never stopped battle between kingdoms.

As the days passed we came to computer generation but men never changed his lifestyle. In our world men look like gentlemen but became more selfish. And there is no love between due the above reason therefore so many countries suffering poverty like African and Asian countries. We can find rich peoples those countries but they never care and help poor people even though they are always trying to control poor people because which is done by mistake through them they draw poor people before the judgment seats. This is the things are done by poor lives and it is going always. As bible says Â“LOVE YOUR NEIGHBOR AS YOU LOVE YOURSELF.Â” If we obey this commandment in the beginning we will not find any widows and orphans on the Roadside.

The Old Testament frequently calls upon God's people especially their rulers, to care for orphans. Without parents to care for them, they are vulnerable and in great danger. James makes it clear that this responsibility carries over to the church as well. And also most people will get the question about, was Abraham made right with God by the faith and not by good works as Paul wrote in Romans chapter 4; or was he made right with God by His works, as James thought.

WHO IS RIGHT?

From the point of view of the whole Bible the answer is clear that is BOTH ARE RIGHT.

“So, Christian has a responsibility to take care of widows, parentless children and homeless peoples.”

This is the brief exchange we had, again as roaring lamb said, make of it what you will.

Re: orphans

thank you so much for your reply. by the by yes we have found the worldvision in India also but to get support we should know the board member then only we can get support from them i think so. and in india also they are rich peoples but they will not help for the christian ministries and so are helping to knowing peoples but not to every one.....

anyway pray for me and our ministry.

may god bless you.

There are so many corrupt schemes to steal the money given to the poor and orphans that many may hesitate to just give with no questions asked. (I do not mean you) Perhaps if you were to ask help from www.worldvision.org (they are in your country) they may resource your ministry with the money and gifts that the "rich" people are giving. I am sponsoring a child in Ethiopia through that ministry but many are being sponsored right now in India. There is a way to get help brother in a way that gives assurance of good stewardship of the money given. There are other missions funded by the "unloving rich people" in your nation also. Connect with them through the internet. There is a way.

Dear Friends,

Greetings to all. This is Rev. Boosa Moses, from Hyderabad, India. A friend had informed me about the issue of Spam Email from a brother in India. It is very sad to know about such things especially from my country. If anyone knows the location or address (physical) of belovedsministries please let me know I would inquire and will let you all know the facts, until then as a pastor it is my humble request not to come to a conclusion of the requests posted by that brother. Maybe he does not know how to communicate or correspond. I have tried to view his website but could not get to the right place. If anyone can provide the address probably a phone number of his will be an added advantage to trace him out. God bless you all.

Re: - posted by crsschk (), on: 2006/10/23 9:34

Hello Boosa,

In all fairness, had hoped that someone might come forward in this instance. Not quite ready to dismiss this with a conclusion one way or the other. Believe Greg did what he had to do under the circumstances and as he noted, there was no way to validate one way or the other.

Here again is the link.

(<http://www.belovedsministries.com/>) <http://www.belovedsministries.com/>

It dawned on me there is another brother from your parts that might be of some assistance as well. Of course it is a rather large country so ...

There is still another difficulty here though. If it is found that his is a legitimate ministry it must be kept in mind that this site is not setup for promotions of this sort or even others, that is neither here nor there, just in the capacity of what can be undertaken. That is why there are some basic guidelines and ground rules. In other words, a mention of personal ministry is one thing but an endorsement and promotion quite another. There is only so much bandwidth for one and the mission of what SermonIndex is and is about is clearly laid out in the welcome section (<https://www.sermonindex.net/modules/newbb/viewforum.php?forum13&3045>) Welcome & Intro under the first couple of threads.

Re: - posted by sermonindex (), on: 2006/10/23 11:35

I received a private message that this brother does run a proper ministry but here are the facts, he is sending hundreds of emails to sermonindex.net members, and posting photos and begging for money. He has disregarded my instructions not to email members at all or signup (which he has done again) after I deleted his other account that he was using to PM 100's OF PEOPLE on sermonindex.net

His methods are not christian or proper and this NEEDS TO STOP. I would not sow into a ministry that uses this techniques to raise money.

Re: - posted by sermonindex (), on: 2006/10/23 11:39

He just does not get the point and is still begging, unbelievable:

I repent of my accusations.

Humbled,

Brother Paul

(edit) I just received this message today. This is most certainly a scam, identical to the Nigerian money-funneling scheme back in the 90's. In each case, there is an unverifiable person or ghost organization that needs help outside their country. The similarities to the unsolicited slum and orphan ministries are uncanny; this is why I jumped the gun with Beloved's Ministries and humiliated myself here on SI. Either way, these solicitations leave a strange taste in one's mouth.

"Dearest One.

I Come across your profile and have Decided to get in touch with you after the prayer, to see if you can help me and my sister solve our problem. My name is Mohamed Zahir With my sister Amina, The Son and Daughter of (Late Dr Mohamed Abdel) Who lost his life in the course of the crisis in my country Cote D'ivoire on the 7th of May last year on his way to the company (Nestle Food Plc). My father willed in cash, the sum of $25 Million US Dollars which he deposited in a Fixed/Suspense account, with enabling conditions for the release of the fund which are as follows:

- (1) That we must be 22 years or above.
 - (2) That upon request for the release of the fund, there must be evidence of investment intentions especially outside the west Africa,
- We contact you therefore to confirm if you can absorb us in partnership in your company or possibly advise us on any investment opportunity in your country. When we reach agreement with you, the bank will release our fund into an account that you shall nominate and we will come over to you to commence business partnership with you and the fund.

We expect your urgent response including your addresses, your telephone and fax number.

You can contact us through this our email: mohamed_zahir03@yahoo.com

Thanks for expected cooperation.

Our Regard,
Mohamed Zahir & Sister Amina"

(PaulWest) - Uh-huh. Sure. The scheme is simple, brethren. They will want to deposit this "$25 million" in my bank account, but will need me to send them about 500 bucks to facilitate the transaction. For my cooperation, they will allow me to keep like 20% of the $25 million. It's an old scam, and they communicate through fax. They keep stalling and stalling, begging for the 500 bucks (or more) before they can do anything. If you're dumb enough to send them money, they will then ask for your bank account# to wire the supposed $25 million. Then they empty your account and you become another statistic on Dateline.

This man has been asked MANY times not to email anyone from this website but persists to do so. That is not a Christ-like spirit and is very wrong.

If you get a email from him tell him not to email you anymore or anyone from sermonindex.net he IS IN DISOBEDIENCE to God by doing these type of things.

I am locking this thread.
