The Old Paths Newsletter - Issue 08

Description: "The Old Paths" is the new official monthly newsletter of the SermonIndex Ministry. It will be a 6 page issue each month that will be offered through the email newsletter. So if you want to receive the latest edition simply sign up for the monthly newsletter on the front page of the site. The newsletter will be available to download in the PDF format. All the back issues will be linked to in this thread. The vision of this newsletter is that people that are blessed by the newsletter can make copies for other friends. I see this newsletter spreading by many individuals making 10-20 copies to hand out to friends or leave at churches. May God grow this and spread these publications as He sees fit for the furtherance of the gospel and His kingdom.

One brother emailed me saying he gets this error when opening the OLD PATHS pdf: "The file is damaged and could not be repaired."

let me know if you are getting the same error or if it's working, much appreciated.
