"The Man Who Was Known In Hell"

by Evangelist Rolfe Barnard (Acts 19:15)

This is a sobering message regarding our need for the anointing, authority, and utterance from the Spirit of God in our preaching.

"...A Christian is truer to himself... he's truer to the gospel on his knees than any other place."

"...Every member of our churches that's heard the true gospel is a criminal, if they do not get on a stump, having been filled with the Spirit and begin to preach the things concerning the kingdom of God with a prayer in our hearts that God will confirm what we preach. Paul was known in hell."
