The model and strength of his life

(Arthur Pink, 1886-1952)

"Christ is all!" Colossians 3:11

Christ is not only the Christian's righteousness, but also the model and strength of his life.

"Apart from Me you can do nothing." John 15:5

You know, we seem to talk so much about other things on this site, that we sideline Jesus.

Col 1v27 says ...Christ in you, the hope of glory.

Is Christ in us? Is it obvious? Do we care?

Christ should be all, but He isn't.

We have too much else vying for our attention.

We need to surrender our all too our Lord, if indeed He is our Lord.

God bless.

What I believe God is doing is allowing us to realize the sinfulness of sin, the heaviness of hell, the justice of judgement and the miserableness of men before he begins to truly show us the Magnificance of the Majesty of God and the Consuming wonder of the Lordship of Christ. God is I believe bringing his people to a new awe and wonder of the glory and majesty of Himself that will result in a new level of holiness and obedience to His voice in the Church.
