

General Topics :: Great teachers/preachers?

Great teachers/preachers? - posted by JJforThree, on: 2006/11/2 14:47

Hey I am a new youth minister and campus minister in Ohio, and I have been listening to some sermons on here so that in the midst of teaching a lot and discipling, I also am feeding myself spiritually (in addition to the Word, prayer, and fellowship of course). I was just wondering what some of your favorite speakers are, as I am new to the site. I have been listening to Carter Conlon some and really enjoy him. Any that stand out to you as just powerfully anointed with the spirit, both convicting as well as motivating and teaching. Thanks!

Re: Great teachers/preachers?, on: 2006/11/2 14:54

My favorite preacher that I am listening to on a regular basis is James Knox out of Deland FL. He is not on this site (though perhaps he should be... someone should look into that).

Here is the link to his site where you can download his sermons:

<http://www.jamesknox.com/>

Listen to just one sermon and you'll understand why I really like this guy. He's currently doing a series on Romans which I highly recommend. Also, there is a series on there about Deuteronomy that is excellent.

By the way, my recommendation of Pastor Knox is in no way meant to take away from SI's wonderful collection of great preachers! Avail yourself of what's on here too!

Krispy

Re: Great teachers/preachers? - posted by hmmhmm (), on: 2006/11/2 14:57

id say Paul Washer....

Leonard Ravenhill

Keith Daniel

i will say that every single sermon ive listend to have shown me more glory of GOD, they are good to start whit, also i recomend you go thru the top 20 list, all sermons there are very good, but hey, there are so many sermons here of Great servants of god, you found a great treasure of godly resorses here, welcome

christian

Re: - posted by KingJimmy (), on: 2006/11/2 15:41

A.W. Tozer - For very meaty yet simple teaching.

Art Katz - For understanding the times we live in, where we've been and where we are going.

Leonard Ravenhill - For setting a fire under you and razor sharp insight.

Keith Green - If you like to chew on something when you sing unto the Lord, then get his music (which is not available on this site).

Re: Great teachers/preachers? - posted by lovegrace, on: 2006/11/2 18:19

For me, it's been John G.Lake and Charles Spurgeon. Both great wise men of God.

Re: - posted by Jacob19, on: 2006/11/2 18:23

David Wilkerson

Re: Great teachers/preachers? - posted by Nellie, on: 2006/11/2 18:52

Carter Conlon and B. H. Clendenen point to Christ, and not themselves.

There are sooo many good Preachers on this site, it is hard to pick just a few.

I think it is really where the Person is in their walk with God, that the Spirit ministers to the individual, by that Sermon at that time.

God Bless

Nellie

Re: Great teachers/preachers? - posted by Smokey (), on: 2006/11/2 19:34

There are so many excellent speakers here, and on sites recommended by visitors.

At the moment I am enjoying some challenging sermons by John Greer at the following location

<http://www.ballymenafpc.org/sermons.html>

Do not be put off by the fact that he is an Irish Presbyterian, his teaching is solid.

These sermons are available in audio, and good quality video as well.

May the Lord bless you as you serve.

Many blessings Greg

Re: Great teachers/preachers? - posted by 1MrMagoo (), on: 2006/11/2 21:01

After finding this site nearly four years ago, I was first lead to Tozer, David Wilkerson, and Leonard Ravenhill. Around this time, I was also giving considerable listening time to Bert Clendenon and the School of Christ...which opened the door to Watchman Nee and the two men he heavily fellowshiped with: Stephen Kaung (I have actually had the pleasure of speaking with him on the phone--he is in his 90's and still preaching) and T. Austin-Sparks. I have downloaded all of their available sermons and loaded them onto my faithful iPod alongside the audio bible. Each week, I listen to approximately 40 hours of sermons and scripture and have been doing this for about 3 1/2 years.

At this time, I have come to believe that T. Austin-Sparks is one of the most anointed teachers/preachers I have heard. You can see/hear traces of his influence in the sermons of dozens of younger preachers whose material is available through this site. I find his messages to be full of meat, not milk and delve deeply into the life of Christ. I highly recommend his sermon series called "In Christ" and "The Glory of God". I find the difference between preachers such as B.H. Clendenon and Wilkerson and T. Austin-Sparks to be that the first two are mainly concerned with building the church and the body of Christ and Sparks is centered on the character/nature of Christ.

I hope that this is of some help to you. Enjoy your journey and while the bumps in the road may hurt...they are ultimately necessary. Blessings to you --Dan

Re: - posted by TaylorOtwell (), on: 2006/11/2 21:15

Lately I've been listening to Keith Daniel...

But also I have been blessed by:

David Wilkerson

Carter Conlon

Leonard Ravenhill

Art Katz

Paul Washer

A.W. Tozer's writing (haven't listened to many sermons by him)

Ray Comfort
Zac Poonen
KP Yohannan

Re:, on: 2006/11/2 21:44

I also recommend Keith Daniel. I don't know where you're at in Ohio but he is going to be speaking in the Hartville area this weekend.

His schedule is here:

https://www.sermonindex.net/modules/newbb/viewtopic.php?topic_id=11651&forum=16

I've recently been listening to Paul Washer and have been very blessed. Leonard Ravenhill is another favorite...

Re:, on: 2006/11/2 21:53

Warren Weirsbe.

He also has written a collection of commentaries that are priceless. He is called by many, 'The pastors pastor'.

Re: - posted by roadsign (), on: 2006/11/2 22:10

Some not mentioned so far - who have blessed me:

Earnest O'Neil
Paris Reidhead
Parkyns
Ron Bailey
Richard Owen Roberts
Edwin Orr
Charles Price
Fromke

Re: - posted by roadsign (), on: 2006/11/3 8:19

Nancy DeMoss

Re: - posted by searchin, on: 2006/11/3 15:19

i agree that Pastor conlon and Clendennen both do point to jesus christ. david wilkerson is one i enjoy as well for the truth and grace in which he preaches the word of God!

any minister who focuses on Jesus and the ministry of winning souls for Christ is always a blessing.....

a great bible teacher i have recently been listening to is Chip Ingram!

Re: - posted by DesiJr, on: 2006/11/3 16:07

There have been two sermons that have changed the pattern of my walk with Christ:

Ten Shekels and a Shirt - Paris Reidhead

I am the righteousness of God in Christ Jesus - Jon Schaelchlin

Both of which are on here.

God Bless,
Desi, Jr.

Re: - posted by GaryE (), on: 2006/11/3 21:32

Carter Conlon
Keith Daniels

Through the years I have received David Wilkerson's news letters. I haven't listened to many of his sermons on audio but many of his news letters have hit the spot through the years.

I never heard of Keith Daniels or Paris Reidhead until I listened to them on SermonIndex. Ten Shekels and a Shirt is really a good message.

Richard Owens Roberts surprized me with his style. The Revival Hymn is special also.

Re: - posted by JoeA (), on: 2006/11/4 1:36

My spiritual mood depends on who i listen to. Anyone else like that?

When i want a spiritual hot water bottle put underneath me, i listen to Leonard Ravenhill.
When i want to be put into remembrance that faith produces a new creature, i listen to Paul Washer.
When i want to be encouraged to press on and seek Christ's face, i listen to Keith Daniel.
When i want to hear a relevant teaching that pierces my heart and makes me think, i listen to Art Katz.

There are others, but these are the main ones i've listened to. God is a good God for allowing us the privelege of hearing Him speak through His many different servants.