

Miracles that follow the plow :: a remote Himalayan kingdom asks your prayera remote Himalayan kingdom asks your prayer - posted by philologos (), on: 2006/11/7 12:14

OK last minute notes... due to fly tomorrow 8th @ 11.40 and due to arrive in the Himalayan kingdom at mid morning on 9th having travelled through Khatmandu.

I then have a few days to acclimatize and then we then start on Sunday 12th through to Friday 17th with other meetings on the 19th and a scheduled return on 22nd Nov.

Here's our schedule...6.30a.m. Rise and wash

7 Å– 8a.m. Quiet time

8 Å– 9a.m. Breakfast

9 Å– 9.30 Singing and prayer

9.30 Å– 10.45 Teaching session

10.45 -11.15 Tea break

11.15 Å– 12.45 Teaching session

12.45 Lunch break

1.45 Å– 3p.m. Discussion groups

3 Å– 3.30 Tea break

3.30 Å– 5.30 Prayer / leaders groups

5.45 Dinner

6.30 Singing

7 Å– 9p.m. Evening meeting

9 Å– 9.30 Tea and snacks

10 Request for lights out!!!! don't think there will be any arguments about 'lights out'.

I value your prayer.

Re: a remote Himalayan kingdom asks your prayer - posted by roadsign (), on: 2006/11/7 12:47

I am assuming, Philologos, that you are the key-note speaker and teacher of this conference - a delegation of pastors and spiritual leaders(?) With translator (?)

This is a lot of meetings!

May God enable you to smoothly adjust to climate, altitude, and culture changes. May he strengthen the faith of these far-away brother's and sisters through you.

Diane

Re: a remote Himalayan kingdom asks your prayer, on: 2006/11/7 13:10 you have my prayers.....I think I know where you are, and I have talked extensively with another pastor, who has done a lot of such. I know you will tread carefully, but the Anointing and Favor of God will proceed you, protect you and allow you to say His Word.

May God bless you Ronnie, neil

Miracles that follow the plow :: a remote Himalayan kingdom asks your prayer

Re: a remote Himalayan kingdom asks your prayer - posted by InTheLight (), on: 2006/11/7 13:24

Will be praying here...

Re: a remote Himalayan kingdom asks your prayer - posted by dohzman (), on: 2006/11/7 14:21

I will keep you and your team in prayer, also will pray for the hearers that thier hearts would be opened to the Word of God and that He would do a quick work of righteousness in your presence.

Re: - posted by philologos (), on: 2006/11/7 15:44

(http://www.kingdomofbhutan.com/kingdom/kingdom_.html) a remote Himalayan kingdom

thank you all for your fellowship and prayer.

Re: - posted by crsschk (), on: 2006/11/7 15:47

And the peace of God, which surpasses all comprehension, will guard your hearts and your minds in Christ Jesus.

Godspeed dear Ron.

Re: a remote Himalayan kingdom asks your prayer - posted by Rahman, on: 2006/11/7 16:25

Bro Ron,

You can count on my timber being added to the prayer pyre!

Sis D you commented;
"This is a lot of meetings!"

Amen ... and a lot of tea too! ... :-D

yep, on: 2006/11/7 18:12

me guessed right, dear Ron.....tread lightly in the leading of the Spirit, its fertile ground, but many sinkholes.....you are wiser than me, and do not need my counsel, only my prayers.

God bless you dear elder, neil

Re: yep - posted by sermonindex (), on: 2006/11/8 1:30

Brother Ron,

You are in my prayers, I expect to hear many "great things" the Lord has done. I would ask that a few brothers and sister s covenant in prayer for next day for Ron Bailey as he enters into "enemy" territory. But praise God the Lord has made a public spectacle of the enemy.

"that I may open my mouth boldly, to make know the mystery of the gospel." Lord open Ron's mouth wide and allow the gospel to come forth in power under the unction of the Spirit.

Re: - posted by Compton (), on: 2006/11/8 2:28

You are in our prayers here Ron.

Miracles that follow the plow :: a remote Himalayan kingdom asks your prayer

Re: - posted by RobertW (), on: 2006/11/8 11:03

Quote:

-----OK last minute notes... due to fly tomorrow 8th @ 11.40

Just a reminder that Ron is headed out. Keeping him in prayer.

Re: a remote Himalayan kingdom asks your prayer - posted by 1firestarter, on: 2006/11/8 13:27

Conference/Mission Trip

Mk6:14(for his name was spread abroad:)

May the Lord use you as hot coals an ember to set the Himalayan kingdom on fire for GOD'S KINGDOM.

Re: Arrived safely - posted by philologos (), on: 2006/11/10 11:30

Settling in an getting to know the saints. My co-speaker from Sri Lanka is a delight so am looking forward to the time tog ether. I have two session on Sunday with an hour'drive along mountain valley unmade roads between them. Blessed b y you love and prayer.

Re: - posted by IRONMAN (), on: 2006/11/10 11:35

bro Ron

God bless you and keep you on this trip and i know whatever He seeks to accomplish through you is done.

i've been given hope through this work you're doing.

Re: - posted by RobertW (), on: 2006/11/10 12:18

Quote:

----- I have two session on Sunday with an hour'drive along mountain valley unmade roads between them.

Sounds awesome. Keeping you in prayer.

God Bless,

-Robert

Re: - posted by crsschk (), on: 2006/11/10 15:51

Wonderful! How great to hear from you Ron. Prayers ongoing.

Re: - posted by philologos (), on: 2006/11/11 9:40

Two meetings tomorrow at differnt destinations. In the first we have 3 language groups so the message will go through 2 or 3 translations. Over 90 per cent of the folks are illiterate and the current tranlsation of the scriptures into the main lan guage is so inaccurate that noone will use it. Makes you think twice about all these conversations we have about the KJ V v the rest!

Had yak for lunch today; not a whole one.
thanks for your prayer.

Miracles that follow the plow :: a remote Himalayan kingdom asks your prayer

Re: - posted by crsschk (), on: 2006/11/11 10:22

:-)

Quote:
-----In the first we have 3 language groups so the message will go through 2 or 3 translations. Over 90 per cent of the folks are illiterate and the current translation of the scriptures into the main language is so inaccurate that no one will use it. Makes you think twice about all these conversations we have about the KJV v the rest!

How perfectly stated, hope this comes to mind again when the inevitable KJV discussion makes its next debut ... Fortunately both the vessel and the Communicator I am sure will do the proper translation.

Wondering what yak must have tasted like ...
Happily praying for you all Ron.

Re: - posted by philologos (), on: 2006/11/13 3:54

The first meeting was about 40-50 in a home. Simple songs and prayer. My interpreter translated into two languages one after the other. Several ex-leprosy patients here; double amputees, crippled hands and limbs, blindness and vicious facial scars. They have found love and acceptance with the saints and some are very bright in their faith. Preached on the man with 2 lost sons; you don't have to leave home to be lost!

Then another mountain road trip and an evening meeting. About 80 gathered here and the message translated into 2 separate languages by two translators. The folks are very bright and seem to be attentive and receptive. I am doing a series on the Family of God.

This morning did another session and have a leaders session in about 5 minutes.

love to all...

Re: - posted by enid, on: 2006/11/13 4:30

It's so good to hear some good news.

God bless.

Re: - posted by dohzman (), on: 2006/11/13 6:27

what a joy ! to hear from you brother. Know this that we all are praying for you that the Word of God may not be hindered in any way and will have free course changing both hearer and translators. God Bless

Re: - posted by philologos (), on: 2006/11/15 3:42

I'm not going to be able to answer any mails for a while but all is well and the folks very attentive and receptive. We have about 80-90 gathering for the evening meetings with choruses in 3 or 4 languages and the preaching translated into 2. Many are illiterate so it all has to be kept simple. I spent about 15 minutes last night telling a made up story about a potato who wanted to become a chili; the folk here eat chilies raw! He tried so hard, went to all the chili meetings, memorised chili verses, tried to behave like a chili, painted himself red and wore green leaves but was still a chili... you will get the point. Nicodemus, you must....

There is considerable financial persecution here with believers losing their jobs, being denied promotions and training, and even sponsorship for their children's schooling. One of my interpreters has just been released from a 7 month sentence for showing the Jesus Film.

If God puts these people on your hearts, please pray; they are in the cauldron.

My health is keeping good, though some altitude effects like breathlessness and nose bleeds; we are at 8000 feet. All is well.. As Wesley put it..."tis worth living for this, to administer bliss,

Miracles that follow the plow :: a remote Himalayan kingdom asks your prayer and salvation, in Jesus's name.

Thank you for your prayers.

Re: - posted by RobertW (), on: 2006/11/16 8:42

Quote:
-----My health is keeping good, though some altitude effects like breathlessness and nose bleeds; we are at 8000 feet. All is well.. As Wesley put it..."tis worth living for this, to administer bliss, and salvation, in Jesus's name.

Amen. Still in my prayers Ron.

Re: - posted by SherylAnne, on: 2006/11/18 1:27

Father, I pray for the Buddhists to believe that there is only one path to You through Jesus Christ, Your Son. As they look for truth, open their spiritual eyes and enlighten their hearts so that they may know You and Your power as the Truth. Lord, I praise You that You do not slumber as You watch over Ron Bailey. Grant him good health as You protect him from physical danger. Shield him with Your armor. Help him to communicate Your love and salvation to the se people. Father, I pray for my brothers and sisters in Christ who are persecuted, they who are blessed who are "persecuted for righteousness' sake: for theirs is the kingdom of heaven." They who are blessed "when men shall revile and persecute them and say all manner of evil against them falsely," for Your sake. May they "rejoice, and be exceeding glad: for great is their reward in heaven." May You be glorified through them, Lord God. Amen.

Re: - posted by philologos (), on: 2006/11/18 8:57

The 'festival' went well and folks have left for different regions. We had a precious time and the word of God was clearly in our midst. These folks are just so appreciative and generous in their love. I have another meeting tomorrow and some important conversations with key persons over the next few days; again I value your prayer.

One item. Almost all the saints here are suffering from financial persecution; job losses, demotions, refusal to grant training, postings to far flung areas which are designed to break up groups. The saints' powers to earn and decreasing constantly while the cost of living rises. Have been praying Deut 8:18 for them; please join me if you have liberty.

Re: - posted by PaulWest (), on: 2006/11/18 9:14

Ron, I have liberty, and will join you over Deut. 8:18. May the Lord reveal his glory and meet the need.

Paul

Re: - posted by crsschk (), on: 2006/11/18 19:08

Hi Ron,

So glad to again hear back reports ... All these things towards prayer.

Re: - posted by philologos (), on: 2006/11/23 10:19

Home! Safe and sound and rejoicing in God's goodness and blessing...Â“Now thanks be to God who always leads us in triumph in Christ, and through us diffuses the fragrance of His knowledge in every place.Â”

(2Cor 2:14 NKJV)

many thanks for your prayers...

dear brother Ron, on: 2006/11/23 13:28

Thank and praise God! I have had you on and in my heart for days.....you have planted imperishable Seed that will grow . In many ways I am envious (in a good way) of your journey. my other brother who has been their is going back, and will water these Seeds.

I feel led to say, oh the depth and breadth and the mystery of the Love of Christ!!!

Please know, that whatever petty minute disagreements we have, that I love you, unseen with a passionate love born in the Holy Spirit, and will continue to pray for your ministry and the "chili's".

God be praised.

neil

ps.....I still love "Life Together"....lol!!!

having a rib on you mate...n.