Brother i thank the Lord for you and this ministry. I have received so much from the messages and the fellowship here. At times this has been an oasis for me to meet with others whose hearts are burning for God's moving in their lives. Of course this site has also caused some trouble as the messages and the discussions have caused much re-evaluation of previously held concepts.

All in all God has blessed me significantly through this site and the brethren here.
Lord willing may it go another four years!!

That is a great testimony brother, my prayer is that these materials will shape the way many preach and look at Christianity. I don't have the full answer by any means but I know there is a lot of the truth here on this site and will help guide people into a fuller relationship with God.

Amen! there are a lot of big changes coming up for the website to increase its functionality, also I have been working on some projects for awhile that will hopefully be done in the near future. May all things be according to His glorious will.

Great to see and remember how things have changed. Looking forward to what the Lord has in store with the changes.

Bro Greg ...

It's my belief I haven't even scratched the surface yet of what our Lord has in store ...

But as it is written, Eye hath not seen, nor ear heard, neither have entered into the heart of man, the things which God hath prepared for them that love Him - 1Cor.2:9

The best is yet to come! ... :-)

Dear brother,

Just God knows how many have been blessed by this ministry, how many have been encouraged for a deeper walk with God and fully surrendered life.

This forum is full of such testimonies.

Reading these testimonies is also witness how God has used SI, brother please continue posting if you have them more.

This site is in the hands of the Lord, and it should stay like that under His authority until the end.

Brother, most important - be sensitive to the voice of the Holy Spirit about everything on the site, sermons, articles, projects, every signal detail is important. May everything be directed from heaven. I believe God was giving you wisdom until now, I believe He will continue!

The Lord will bless more and more!

May His will be for this site.

Many blessings from Macedonia,
(the very fact that many have been blessed from all over the world is testimony!)

Resently I've been able to listen to music at my work. And I haven't been in the mood for worship but instead I've been in the mood for preaching and teaching.

I've probly listened to 200 messages in the past month or so. Honestly, many of the messages are truly a wonderful blessing.

I've grown so much spiritually. Also, UN-learning certain things.

Just resently, I've learned about DEAD works and our SALVATION from SIN (NOT just hell and His wrath)

So, Greg, if it wasn't for the Spirit of God touching your heart to do this. I have no idea where I'd be spiritually today. Praise God and may God increase the SUPPORT of this ministry.
