

Scriptures and Doctrine :: Once saved, always saved?

Once saved, always saved? - posted by RedRiver (), on: 2007/1/15 16:31

Hi brothers,

has any of you listened to Affabel by John Bevere?

it's brought up some very interesting questions in my mind about the whole subject of the doctrine of eternal security. My question is, if a true, born again christian ends up involved in carnal sin (adulatory, for instance) for many years without a ny form of repentance and desire to change - are they eternally secure?

Re: Once saved, always saved? - posted by hmmhmm (), on: 2007/1/15 16:43

there has been many discussions about this before here im sure you can dig up some threads whit good posts in it, but as i understand there has always in all of christian history been two sides of this, me for one i belive

1Jn 2:19 They went out from us, but they were not of us; for if they were of us, they would have continued with us. But t hey went out so that it might be revealed that they were not all of us.

explains it quite well.

Re: Once saved, always saved? - posted by tjservant (), on: 2007/1/15 16:49

James 5 (NASB)

19My brethren, if any among you strays from the truth and one turns him back,

20let him know that he who turns a sinner from the error of his way will save his soul from death and will cover a multitu de of sins.

in His service

TJ

Re: Once saved, always saved? - posted by GraceAlone (), on: 2007/1/17 16:30

Quote:

-----

RedRiver wrote:

Hi brothers,

has any of you listened to Affabel by John Bevere?

it's brought up some very interesting questions in my mind about the whole subject of the doctrine of eternal security. My question is, if a true, born aga in christian ends up involved in carnal sin (adulatory, for instance) for many years without any form of repentance and desire to change - are they etern ally secure?

-----

A true Christian doesn't live in habitual sin like that period.

1 John 3:6

Whoever abides in Him does not (habitually practice) sin. Whoever (habitually practices) sins has neither seen Him nor k nown Him.