Thank You All!!!, on: 2007/1/20 23:16

I just wanted to thank all of you for your faith in the LORD, your continuance in fulfilling His purpose, and your fellowship.

The LORD has brought me far over the past four months, and your support and kind words, and even disagreements have helped me immensely.

At times I wish we could all fellowship in the same building, but I'd far rather have us fellowship in truth in the Spirit.

God lead us all into greener pastures. I love you all (even if I have a short temper).

I love you too Corey, and everyone here in our Church.....

and Greg, I thank you and bless you for doing this. Be encouraged dear brother..

Dear Corey, I too, have a short temper and many many failings, you are not alone.

Right now, I apologize and beg forgiveness to ANY brother or sister I have spoken harshly and rashly to, please forgive me.

I can tell you right now what my favorite chapter in the whole Bible is: John 17

I send my love and my hug to you in the Lord, neil
