

Scriptures and Doctrine :: Neither shall they say, Lo here! or, lo there!*Neither shall they say, Lo here! or, lo there! - posted by rowdy2 (), on: 2007/2/1 2:46

Neither shall they say, Lo here! or, lo there!

The Kingdom Of God is not a earthly place but the acceptance of God' dominion over our earthly lives. The Kingdom of God is a sinless place in our hearts that Jesus garnished with His Blood preparing a Holy place for the Holy Spirit of God to make His abode with us. Our hearts are the Holy of Holies inside this earthly tabernacle for us to worship and to know our God. There was a battle in our heart and Jesus cleaned the Temple and threw Satan and garnished our hearts with spiritual gifts

Re: Neither shall they say, Lo here! or, lo there! - posted by enid, on: 2007/2/1 8:32

1 John 2v15 tells us to not to love the world. If we do then the love of the Father is not in us.

We should not have divided loyalties.

If God would be pleased to dwell in us, then why would any Christian want the world, let alone love it?

We think less of God than we realise. It seems like that at times.

Yet, we know He is our Creator, and can do whatever He so wants.

We are bought with a price, the blood of the Lord Jesus Christ. He owns us.

If He is not our Lord, then He cannot be our Saviour.

God bless.