Great Preachers and Teachers of the past - posted by jamccor (), on: 2007/2/17 17:31

Does anyone have a website or a listing of some of the past great teachers of christianity? For instance; jonathan edwards, charles spurgeon, George Mueller`..just to name but 3. I would like to have the ultimate list of these people. I know it will be in the hundreds or more but I would really like to study up on these great people.

Thanks and GOD Bless
John

Besides here? ;-)

I know what you mean brother, not aware of one specifically by listing as it could be a bit arbitrary depending on preference, denominational construct and so forth...

You may end up just having to continue to seek and dig ... search. Have you tried a Google search on variations of this?

Here is a couple that can keep you quite occupied;

Actually, what I am doing, is copying some of the names from the main page of the audio section of SermonIndex and pasting into google.

I would really like to have this huge list with names and brief bio's of all the great teachers from outside the bible.
Thanks

Hi brother John,

These are good sites with biographies that I have got them offline for my personal study:

(http://www.watchword.org)
(http://www.wholesomewords.org)
(http://www.kamglobal.org)
(I'm finding suspicious few of these mention in the last site, but 98% are good)
