Oh dear lord were always laughing and clapping oh the joy we long to see and get. So much do we hear of the joy of the holy ghost the benefits but never do we talk or ask about the grief of the holy ghost. God im sick of our mediocrity of frail sick and feebleness. God help us to trade our joy for grief and tears. Brand us not only with fire but with tears and compassion. God baptize my with tears and compassion. Roll your burden on my heart and give me strength to bear it. Ive laughed enough ive clapped enough ive shouted enough but God give me tears. This world is sick and dying tonight while the church it sleeps America goes to hell and destruction. God give us tears brand me with compassion let is sing down to my loins. Let me groan and wail let me labor in prayer.Lord forgive me and this church for our dry eyes.
