

Welcome & Intro :: Greetings in Jesus' Name from Canada!

Greetings in Jesus' Name from Canada! - posted by mom23beagles, on: 2007/2/25 14:06

Edited for privacy reasons.

Re: Greetings in Jesus' Name from Canada! - posted by sermonindex (), on: 2007/2/25 15:34

Quote:
-----Hello, friends! My name is Mia and I live on the West Coast of Canada. I've been familiar with this website for a long time, enjoyed the fruits from the sermons so I decided to join the messageboard, I just found it today actually! I'm a slow learner.

God Bless you and its great that you are using this resource and the forums now. I am located in Victoria, Canada also and have just moved here in case you didn't know. Or perhaps I already know you all but am of slow memory to remember your names. God bless and let me know if I can help you with anything.

Re: Greetings in Jesus' Name from Canada!, on: 2007/2/25 15:53

Hi Mia, welcome to the talkative side of SI :-)

I mainly answered your message because of the "23 beagles", but it seems there's only 1? Although you did say "Agnes the beagles", so maybe there are two of her? 8-)

Anyway, be blessed and encouraged in your further walk with the Lord

In Him

Jeannette

Re: Greetings in Jesus' Name from Canada! - posted by Smokey (), on: 2007/2/25 17:50

Mia
Welcome fellow Canuck. There is lots to be gleaned here.
Blessings Greg & Mary-Anne :-)

Re: - posted by Yeshuasboy (), on: 2007/2/25 18:16

Quote:

Mia
Welcome fellow Canuck. There is lots to be gleaned here.

Amen :-D Praise God for His faithfulness and for pets :-D richie

Welcome & Intro :: Greetings in Jesus' Name from Canada!

Re: Greetings in Jesus' Name from Canada!, on: 2007/2/25 18:28

mom...

I just wanted to welcome you to SI. Presently, I am teaching English in South Korea, but I am originally from Nova Scotia. I hope you take advantage of all that this site has to offer.

God Bless You and Your family,
BrianMira

Re: Greetings in Jesus' Name from Canada! - posted by loveroftruth, on: 2007/2/26 0:36

Welcome Mia:

"Thanking him daily and growing in the knowledge and understanding of Him. I am lucky to be alive. Thank God for His faithfulness. I am full of gratitude for His saving power and love."

Your post reminded me of this verse in Colossians 2:6-7 "As you have therefore received Christ Jesus the Lord, so walk in Him, rooted and built up in Him and established in the faith, as you have been taught, abounding in it with thanksgiving.

Your gratitude and thankfulness are a treasure, assuring you that as you serve Him you will abound in good works for His glory!

Good to have you in Christ and in Victoria.

Doug

Re: Greetings in Jesus' Name from Canada! - posted by iansmith (), on: 2007/2/26 0:44

Can anything good come from Canada?

Sorry, I repent!

Re: - posted by Tears_of_joy, on: 2007/2/26 5:17

Quote:

-----Can anything good come from Canada?

Of course! sermonindex ;-)

Re: - posted by vico, on: 2007/2/26 10:51

Quote:

-----Can anything good come from Canada?

God's work goes on, even in Canada!

Welcome to the newcomer! I'm from southern Ontario!

Welcome & Intro :: Greetings in Jesus' Name from Canada!

Re: Greetings in Jesus' Name from Canada! - posted by UniqueWebRev (), on: 2007/2/28 3:07

Dear Sis,

Glad you're talking now too, not just listening.

I wish you'd elaborate on your testimony - it sounds so like mine it's scary, except for the blessing of having a Christian family!

As for Canada, the rest of us are not in Judah, and if you were out of Nazareth, I'd consider you blessed!

I know it's quite beautiful there - I used to spend summers up at 11,000 feet in Wyoming above Yellowstone National Park, and lower down was exquisite. Only thing I couldn't handle was the mosquitoes!

By the way, do all Canadians really end all their sentences with 'eh?', or is it regional, like 'I, mean, like, really!' is here in Southern California? 8-)

Glad to have you, you Beagle nut, you!

Re: - posted by mom23beagles, on: 2007/2/28 13:50

Deleted for privacy reasons.

Re: Mosquitoes and other evils. - posted by UniqueWebRev (), on: 2007/3/3 0:32

Okay, Mia, now send me a map, so I can consider living there! And I'm serious, too! Southern California is where I happen to live, not where I would like to, and my ministry is portable, being online.

Your trials were different in type than mine - there was no God in my family, and little love - Although baptised at 15, the church that got me that far forgot to tell me about tongues, and I came out of the water being expected to have that gift automatically. I babbled something to placate them, was scared out of my mind, and saw the faces around me as demons!

The devil used it to make that church seem evil, so I ran...straight to the occult! Add in childhood sexual abuse (blessedly from outside the family), I acted out in promiscuity as well, since it was the early 70's, and I believed what I was being told.

Alas, no one to protect me except Jesus, constantly coming back into my life with a steady pull on the fishing rod.

Then, after I prayed for over a year for peace of mind and contentment of spirit, God gave it to me, taking me out alive out of a deadly car accident, then one by one breaking off all the things I thought were good, my marriage (to a non-Christian), my career (Mortgage Lending, which I hated but was great at), my health, and much of my memories, until my old life was gone, and I could devote all my time to God.

All of it has been a difficult lesson, from before birth to now, but what a great blessing! And now that I work for God directly, I know why my life went the way it did, for how else can I understand what pain and trouble that others have been through? Obviously there is more I can't talk of here - it would take a book, and be much too boring, at least to me, and probably to others. (No polite kudos needed)

You forgot to answer about the 'eh?', so I was probably being rude. I am sorry if I was, but I have a tendency to facetiousness from time to time.

Anyway, glad to know about the mosquitoes!

Many Blessings,

Re: - posted by mom23beagles, on: 2007/3/7 1:26

UniqueWebRev, I was not offended by the "eh?" question ... it seems to come more from the people who live in Ontario (where I was born & raised, moved to the West Coast at age 16) so my speech is peppered with "eh" - my American friends laugh at me all the time because I type as I speak. :-) Did I answer your question?

Your testimony is amazing and I thank you for sharing it. I love to hear how the hand of God has sustained us even when we didn't acknowledge it.

Hopefully you can get this link, and see where I live - it's a beautiful island, and we can see the USA from certain points. I live on the top end of the Peninsula in a little town called Sidney. It's like a little slice of paradise out here - quiet, serene, unhurried. I love to walk the beach with my dogs and be in prayer and communion with the Father the whole time. I am so blessed to live here. God's handiwork is all around me and it is indeed an enormous gift from Him to live in such a beautiful place.

(<http://maps.yahoo.com/index.php#mvtn&tpundefined&ttvictoria,%20bc&trf=0&lon=-123.367367&lat=48.427492&mag=6>) <http://maps.yahoo.com/index.php#mvt=m&tp=undefined&tt=victoria,%20bc&trf=0&lon=-123.367367&lat=48.427492&mag=6>

Here is a picture of what I am blessed to see as I walk along the beach with my beagles:

[Image: <http://img.photobucket.com/albums/v637/momtothreebeagles/MiasPictures038.jpg>]