Friends, it's 7.30pm here and I'm going out with a neighbour for a meal together. I really want to talk with him and invite him to a show of the passion when it opens here. The church groups here in Worthing, England, have hired out the local cinema for 2 days, good Friday and Saturday, so Christians can bring along their friends and there's also a pre-intro to the film and offer of any help people may want after. His name is Mark, please pray for me, thanks.

Hi all,
Just to update you, the evening out with my neighbour Mark went well. He now wants to do an Alpha course which we are holding in a local Indian restaurant! please continue to pray
thanks :-D

I'll pray, of course, and I'm glad Mark is open to more.

I'd advise caution about Alpha courses, though:
