Update on Art's Health from "The Burning Bush"

They are requesting prayer

www.benisrael.org

Mar. 1st, 2007

After nearly two months of respite, Art is once again experiencing a flare-up of inflammation that has attacked his joints. His knees are swollen and the leg area surrounding both knees are giving him considerable pain. At the moment, he is very nearly immobile.

He's at the moment (9:30AM Central Time) en route to the Bemidji Hospital for medical attention.

Be praying.

Psalm 12:1 HELP, LORD! For principled and godly people are here no more; faithfulness and the faithful vanish from among the sons of men.

Oh Lord! your people are not able to value and sense the blessedness of having godly servants of Christ who are rare to find in our modern compromising Christendom. Please keep your servant in sound health for Church sake and your glory. Amen!

In Him,
Shibu
