Hi thks for getting back to me..Im in the uk so not sure their come here..I was just wondering basic stuff really,what deno mination they were etc..I wasn't even sure they were still preaching,as a search didn't show anything..

I heard Keith's abide sermon which was amazing sermon..He seemed a tad dismissive of David Wilkerson in one sermo n,but maybe i read more into it then was there..

thks again andy

Hi Andy,
Keith and Roy Daniel are missionaries in South Africa with the African Evangelistic Band. Once a year Keith comes over to the USA and does a tour during the months of September through November. For the past couple of years Roy has also been coming over and preaching at a few different locations. The tour for this fall is still in the process of being org anized.

I don't think that Keith or Roy preach in the UK.
If you have any other questions please feel free to pm me.
Blessings,
Joy Courville

Yes, his sermons can be 'staggering' (that would be a term Keith would use). But keep listening. Brother Keith spends an incredible amount of time in prayer and the Word of God. When we spend that much time in the Word of God it does change our perspective on music and other issues of life...
Have you listened to 'My Godly Father' and 'My Godly Father-in-Law'?
One of the things that has amazed me the most about brother Keith is the way he quotes Scripture. You may not be able to tell on an audio message but he quotes large passages of Scripture word perfect...amazing...Check out The Sermon on the Mount, Daniel, 1 Peter, James.

I believe his views (on music) would be considered tame if they could be compared to the views of most of the saints that are so often quoted on this site, but that will never happen.

I also believe there are a lot more saints like Mr. Daniels out there than we think.

Just my 2 cents

I am glad you are being blessed from his preaching. Peace be with you.

Hi,the thing i noticed about Roy was he seems a very soft spoken and gentle person..It struck me that Gary Wilkerson is similar in how he differ to his Fathers style..Not that the message is wrong just different tone..aj
