I talk with my brother today.
He said he is still sick.
He said sometime before Monday
someone will come and talk with him
see if they will leave go work during the day.
He told me that he read the Bible in 7 days.
Wow. He was really amazed today. I can recall a lot of it.
Please pray for His health
Please pray for this person he will be talking with Please pray God's word will be moved powerfully in his heart
Please pray for all the paper stuff and work will work out.

Thanks
I am His Holy Child

Charlene,

Wow! It sounds to me as though our Lord is doing a mighty work in your brother. His Word never returns to Him void. Your brother's hunger is apparent. At this rate he may well have read the Bible four times during his stay. We will keep praying for him. Be encouraged dear sister, you and your brother are not standing alone.

In His Love,

Doug

You are right, thanks for praying.
It makes such a difference knowing people are praying. I see Him on Tuesday I will tell him.
In His love
