I went and saw my brother yesterday.
He said that he has been feeling bad,
They have massed up on his order, and not letting him have any paper or pen. He was let out in room with other guys, and three guys tried to start a fight with him. They saw him on the news. They wanted to know why he tried to kill the dog. Praise God they didn't try anything.
The carzy thing is that they put my brother in the worse place, with really bad guys.
It looks like they are stil doing paper work, so he can get out and work. He has lots of work that he is suppose to be doing. Hopful he will get out next week.
thanks for you all your prayers

My brother has only 13 more days. Please pray God will keep growing him in amazing ways while he is in their.

I still haven't gotten any pastor's to go see him. please keep praying, and please pray for my feet and hands they have been hurting.

Also I Looking for a new church. Please Pray I will forgive.

it has been almost 3 weeks now,
They did test last week, on him.
He has really high BP, and they said
he shouldn't have that high with taking med's
I am very thankful for your prayers.
I going to see my brother tommorw.
Also think it might have to with his lungs.
I really don't know. I hope everything comes back fine.

Charlene,

So grateful to God for your brother's being blessed, that you are such a blessing, and that you have such a heart for your God, your family, for friends, your church.

I pray that you will continue to do well, and help to guide your friends.

I pray also, that the prayer tent is fixed, and that all the people will come, day and night as they are able, and that strong preaching will bring great results there.

Blessings,

MY brother is home!!
I now have to keep the house clean.
I guess that's ok.
It is very nice having him back.
please pray he will get some work. and will get in a good bible study with older men.

thank you.
after the bible study.
Me and my brother talked about the bible.
It was good stuff.
His health has been doing much better since he has been out of jail.

Doug
this a neat thing you said. This should be how we see our sisters and brothers. It is wonderful.
Makes me think of how much God loves me. Thanks telling me I am cherished by God, and reminding that there are those in the body who have never met me, and yet show such love.
"you are cherished by our Lord and therefore cherished by us.

I talked with my brother today. It seems he just as sick as me in many ways. I am so sad. I want him to be well. I know I can't help him? He needs Christ. He needs brothers in Christ. Maybe a bible study in Tuscon. He isn't going to Church. He needs a reason to live, a vision. He needs something to drive, something to live for.
have no purpose. I haven't been home now for 1/ 1/2. He just feels sick. He thinks about dying everyday.. after our father died, he thinks about it. He been having a hard time. He has fear that this sickness will not go away. He has been having little work. He is struggling like me. I need wisdom how I can reach him with Christ.

Charlene-The best way to get back into life is to live for others. This will get the focus off of yourself and your sicknesses and do something for another.

Anything done for another is something done for the Lord ...keep that focus and watch your lives take off. Use your simple gifts to Share His love and be blessed by the overflow that will engulf you.

You and your brother are in my prayers.

I think this makes me cry,

I want to say I have loved him. I have given up my health for him in some ways. maybe this my pride, I don't know,,but I feel I tried to love him. If I am wrong I repent and ask God to help me love deeper, and pray more for him. I understand what is being said, but for some reason it is cutting into my heart. and I feel heavy of heart. Oh God help me.. I cry please take this which I carry I give it to you. I want to love more teach help me please
