7 verses from the 80th Psalm

vs 1-7 from the King James Version

Give ear, O Shepherd of Israel,
thou that leadest Joseph
like a flock;
thou that dwellest
between the cherubims,
shine forth.

Before Ephraim and Benjamin
and Manasseh stir up thy strength,
and come and save us.

Turn us again, O God,
and cause thy face to shine;
and we shall be saved.

O Lord God of hosts,
how long wilt thou
be angry against
the prayer of thy people?

Thou feedest them
with the bread of tears;
and givest them tears to drink
in great measure.

Thou makest us a strife
unto our neighbours;
and our enemies laugh
among themselves.

Turn us again,
O God of hosts,
and cause thy face
to shine; and
we shall be saved.

Saul, Saul, why persecutest thou me? it is hard for thee to kick against the pricks."

Which in his times he shall shew, who is the blessed and only Potentate, the King of kings, and Lord of Lords; Who only hath immortality, dwelling in the light which no man can approach unto; whom no man hath seen, nor can see: to whom be honour and power everlasting. Amen."

Â....here is an answer

Â“at midday, O king, along the road I saw a light from heaven, brighter than the sun, shining around me and those who journeyed with me. Â“And when we all had fallen to the ground, I heard a voice speaking to me and saying in the Hebrew

Â‘Saul, Saul, why are you persecuting Me? It is hard for you to kick against the goads.Â’
Acts 26:14

Â“One day I was on such a mission to Damascus, armed with the authority and commission of the leading priest. About noon, Your Majesty, a light from heaven brighter than the sun shone down on me and my companions. We all fell down, and I heard a voice saying to me in Aramaic, *Â‘Saul, Saul, why are you persecuting Me? It is hard for you to fight against my will.*Â’
Acts 26:14

NKJV
New Living Translation

Is this my answer?

In verse 4 of Psalm 80 it reads '...how long will
You be angry against the prayer of Your people?

Is God angry against our prayers?

When our enemies are laughing among themselves, presumably against the people of God, is it not time to seek God for Him to shine forth, for us to be restored, for God's glory and honour?

What I write next might seem like an aside to the original post and replies, but here goes.

Rev 1v9 tells us John was on the island of Patmos, exiled, for the gospel of Jesus Christ.

Verse 10 tells us he was in the Spirit on the Lords day.

Verse 17 says when he saw Him (Jesus) he fell down as one dead.

First, John is on his own, but yet he was in the Spirit.

No music, no singers, no gimmicks, just him and the Holy Spirit.

Then, he saw Jesus, and fell down as one dead.

When has that ever happened to us, especially when in church?

Which is why we need to seek God to restore us, that His face would shine on us.

God bless.

Return, we beseech thee,
O God of hosts:
look down from heaven,
and behold, and visit this vine;
And the vineyard which
thy right hand hath planted,
and the branch that
thou madest strong for thyself.

Psalm 80 vs 14-15

"And, behold, the glory of the God of Israel came from the way of the east: and his voice was like a noise of many waters: and the earth shined with his glory." -Ezekiel 43:2

We have heard with our ears,
O God, our fathers have told us,
what work thou didst in their days,
in the times of old.

How thou didst drive out the heathen
with thy hand, and plantedst them;
how thou didst afflict the people,
and cast them out.

For they got not the land in possession by their own sword,

neither did their own arm save them:

but thy right hand,
and thine arm,
and the light of thy countenance,
because thou hadst a favour unto them.

-Psalm 44 verses 1-3

*...but thy right hand, and thine arm,
and the light of thy countenance*
