AMEN and Amen! - posted by Denman, on: 2007/3/25 0:19

This is a message that DESPERATELY NEEDS to be sounded from every evangelical pulpit to wake up the deceived so they may realize they are still dead in the sins with nothing more than a phony fire insurance policy. So many people are going to hear Jesus speak the words, "I never knew you. Turn away from me you who PRACTICE lawlessness." Those of us who have a heart for these "professing" christians, and we should because Christ does, need to hit the streets and sound the trumpet of the TRUE Gospel that actually saves. We need to confront the false, watered down, half Gospels being preached in our churches and call our leaders to the mat for accountability in a spirit of genuine humility & reverence for Christ & HIS bride. Will we join together in these last days to be bold as lions and sound these trumpets for our King? I'm praying we will because that's what He has called us to do until the day we die, or He takes us home. To Greg Gordon I say...

Amen & AMEN!!

ALL for HIS Kingdom,
