Saints,

This is truly a fearsome sermon that has the power and anointing to instill a mortal fear of God and death. I do not say lightly that the impending doom of eternity just overshadows this entire message. William P. Nicholson gives a very sober warning. I think this is an extremely important message that everyone on Sermonindex should hear.

Thank you for bringing this sermon to our attention. I wouldn't have known about it otherwise. I downloaded it to my mp3 player and listened to it last night.

May we always be sensitive to the voice of our blessed Shepherd!!
