

Miracles that follow the plow :: We Are Moving (God willing)

My wife came to me suddenly a couple of weeks ago and said she wanted to move in order to lower our cost of living. That is an answer to prayer.

I came home one day and felt as if God was saying to me, 'Are you going to do anything to hinder her being drawn to me?' I began to feel convicted and was going over in my mind anything that would hinder my wife's faith journey.

Unknown to me, my wife had gone to her sister, who is a Christian, and had been complaining about her job. My wife's sister and her husband prayed about it and came back to my wife and said, 'we think you need to move near us.'

My wife brought it up the next day. Within two weeks, we found a fairly large spot of land in the mountains near where my wife's sister lives and we are planning to build there. The man selling it seems to be an alright guy. His wife was leaving one day when we were there to go to a revival meeting. He did not advertise on the net or with a real estate company. Just a wooden sign next to the road with magic marker writing.

Very interesting

I plan on going to Bible college at Toccoa Falls and then seminary, unless God tells me otherwise.

I would appreciate all prayers that the Lord's will would be done with our family; my daughter to have a solid Christian school, my wife to be put in a place where she will be drawn closer to God, and for me, that I will be placed in God's perfect will doing whatever ministry is His desire.

May God bless your family and your desire to seek Him as the "pearl of great price."
