Falwell Found Unconscious, Hospitalized

LYNCHBURG, Va. (AP) - The Rev. Jerry Falwell was found unconscious in his office Tuesday and taken to the hospital, a Liberty University executive told a newspaper.

Ron Godwin, the executive vice president of the school, told The News & Advance of Lynchburg that Falwell was found unconscious after missing an appointment Tuesday morning. Falwell arrived at Lynchburg General Hospital around noon, the newspaper reported on its Web site.

When contacted by The Associated Press, Godwin said he couldn't talk at that time.

Brother Jerry is seeing things right now that we can not even begin to fathom.

He was a man of God, even tho I never totally agreed with everything he did in his ministry. But there can be no doubt that he preached biblical salvation, and took a lot of heat for it, and was maligned at every turn in the road. But he ran his race...

See ya in a little while, brother!

ONE DAY SOON WE SHALL ALL STEP OUT OF THIS LIFE AND INTO ETERNITY, may we all be ready to meet Jesus Christ and give an account for our lives.

Bless brother Falwell's soul!
