Now I like this. Just when you think sermonindex.net has gotten better, something else pops up to make it even more better. Sometimes I think being on disability is good for me meaning I can't work which intern means that I spend alot of time soaking up this site and all it has to offer. Thank you Greg for the recent changes and additions and so much more.

Keep adding the posters and I'll keep printing them out on photo paper and add a nice frame for them, to be put up in my new apartment a year from now. sermonindex.net just keeps getting sweeter and sweeter.

Brother Julian :-)

Greg...these are just awesome!!! Thank you so much for making them available!!

Re:, on: 2007/5/25 23:01

Oh brother, these are amazing! These are the kind of pictures we should line the walls our homes with!!! I showed these to a friend and her eyes welled up with tears as she looked at that wonderful picture of C. H. Spurgeon. We are rejoicing at these holy pictures and quotes that have been joined together.

Thank you for doing these!!!

I love these posters. This is great, however, my printer either needs to be fixed or It's just died. If all It needs is repairing i n some way then my next door neighbor (a born again christian) fixes all sorts of printers for a living and would take a lo ok at mine and fix it, no charge.

One reason why is, I told him of sermonindex.net and how very very important it was that I get my printer up and workin g. By the way Greg, after giving him the link of sermonindex, he's since looked it over alot and loves it and see's why I s peak of it so highly, and now has it bookmarked and goes to it on a regular basis.

Praise God!!!

: oops, this is my 50th post, same number as my age, ouch. :-? :-P
