Praying saints,

Please cry out to God for a very dear sister in the Lord, a close friend of mine, Anna. She had her first child last night and is not doing well (praise God that her baby daughter is doing well). She is in ICU right now. Pray for God heal her body, and not let anything happen that would prevent her from having more children.

Thank you for crying out to God on the behalf of her and her husband.

I will be praying.

Dear Milica, Charlene, Annie, Mike, and Chris,

Thank you for praying for Anna. I haven't heard much but her condition is stable. If all goes well today she will be able to leave ICU tomorrow. They nearly lost her twice yesterday; thank God for sparing her!

Please continue to pray for God to strengthen and heal her body, she's been through a very traumatic time.

Father,
Thank-you for already touching Anna.
Jesus is the Healer.
Continue to bring her forth, and we will give you all the Glory.
In Jesus Name.

Re:, on: 2007/6/3 22:14

Praise God and Amen together with the rest who are praying. If two agree as touching anything ... we're a force multiplied.

Amen Nellie's prayer. Amen to all.

LORD BLESS Anna and Family.

Amen!

Here is the latest. Pray for God to touch her uterus and heal it so that they do not have to do a hysterectomy. Also pray that in Anna's great physical weakness God will strengthen her both physically and spiritually.

O Lord Jesus, do touch her body, heal her for your glory!

Hallelujah! Jehovah Rapha.

Joy, I sent you a PM right before you posted this. I felt led to ask you about your friend. Our God has raised another testimony to Himself and once again displayed His great faithfulness in answering prayer.

This is a great place to thank Him, on SI, with our family in the assembly of saints.

Brother Paul :-)

Here are (<http://www.joshandanna.com/baby/>) pictures for those of you who faithfully prayed for this little family.
