Hi Phil,

And welcome. I'm sure you've already noticed all the awesome downloads that are available. I have been incredibly blessed by everything I've listened to by Paul Washer. Check him out if you haven't already.

Glad to have you here and I pray that the site continues to be a source blessing, encouragement and challenge to you in your walk with Christ.

Danielle

Dear Phil,

It is my joy to greet and welcome you into this fellowship. Knowing what those resources you cited--or rather the Lord of them all--has done in my life in the past year and a half, I cannot but rejoice over you, and pray the Father for your growth in Christ.

Brother, feel free to share how things are going with you, either in personal message or in the forums, or any questions you may have. I am convinced that in the Lord's timing everything that needs to happen will happen. You trust Him!

Bro Slavyan

What mature believers? You didn't know that we're all just kids in a sandbox here?

Stick around for the food fights!

Blessings,

Forrest

Me too! I love the sermons too. In fact, I was listening to several sermons before I realized this was a forum. Silly me. :-D

thank you forrest, cyh717 and rowdy2,

i used to listen to sermons and watch the forums for like 2 years without ever saying much myself.. i love it here and i really believe that God is using this to smooth so many rough places in me with loving brothers and sisters with differing opinions, but still believers in the Lord.. so to all of you guys i say..

thank you all and i love you all in Christ..

Hi

I just now have taken the time to welcome members as was welcomed. I believe one of those who welcomed me was you or maybe I saw your username on a re: on one of my posts, anyway welcome and I pray blessings on your life and your growth in the Lord as we all grow daily. If we are not growing we are going back right.
