Pray for Tammy Faye's soul. - posted by jordanamo, on: 2007/7/20 20:35

Saw her on Larry King last night. She's got inoperable cancer and seems really close to death, weighs 65 pounds. Really made me sad for her.

This brought me to tears. I was moved deeply to pray for her. I hope my prayers were answered. Now that she has passed
I pray that Jesus will use her children as a true light in the darkness. Amen.

:(I saw a flashback last night on CNN of an interview done with her, her husband Jim, and grown children a couple of years ago.....how sad how that family ended up.....I hope she knew the Lord.
