I randomly came across a blog owned by a brother in Christ who is currently stationed and serving the Lord in Iraq. I noticed that there are VERY FEW comments on his blog site. I think he would be really blessed if we commented on his blog and encouraged and edified him in his faith.

I think this would be an excellent use for the internet.

Here's the link to his blog:

Thanks Jeremy,

Actually, all I saw was zero comments ... A wonderful idea brother.

Jeremy,

I visited his blog, but I wasn't sure where I could post a message to him. Maybe you can help me out?

Murray

Hi Murray,

Took me a bit as well. Look at the very bottom of any of his entries for "0 comments" and click on that itself.
