Chinese Poison toys - posted by ravenmolehil, on: 2007/8/14 9:08

I know there is alot of parents out there that have already heard this but if you haven't please take a look from the US Consumer Product Safety Commission:

(<http://www.cpsc.gov/cpsc/pub/prerel/prhtml07/07257.html>) massive toy recall - phase 1
Lead based paints on baby toys,

It looks like half of the toy section in Wal Mart!!

I guess there are some companies out there that don't view children as gifts from God, but rather a means to a dollar.

I gotta go & throw some things away now,,

:-x

According to the evening news one of the directors of the companies making the toys committed suicide.
Its sad!
