Prayer Request - posted by hmmhmm (), on: 2007/9/1 15:21

If anyone feel lead to lift up a man called Seppo in prayer i would be most grateful, he is very dear to me and almost as a father. He recently had a large by-pass operation and tonight he suffered some complications and had great difficulty breathing, he was just taken away by an ambulance if any of you would like to mention him in your prayers i would be much grateful.

Thank you for your prayers sister, and to anyone else who prayed. This man went home to be with the Lord yesterday night. He walked with God and God took him.

Christian,

I will pray that God fills the hole in your heart with Himself.
