Hi sscott...

I believe that four part series, The Damnation of Hell, was created by Greg and is a compilation of various messages preached on the matter. Here is (https://www.sermonindex.net/modules/newbb/viewtopic.php?topic\_id16926&forum35&start10&viewmodeflat&order1) the link to the original thread.

I haven't heard it yet, but I will download it tonight!

The Damnation of Hell compilation was made by Abraham Juliot, not Greg Gordon. Abe's website is abe.theopenlife.com

I'm sorry, but that is utterly sick, profane, and disgusting. I could not watch any more of it after 3 minutes. The images were so graphic, actually, they were obscene. Pornographic in a sick sadistic sense. You call that the "fear of God"?

Shame on all of you that enjoyed this. "Witnessing tool"? I hope you dare not proclaim hell to the lost. It's what Karl Barth rightly called the "gospel at gun-point."

While I haven't viewed the compilation, I wouldn't think that anyone "enjoyed" it. Rather, from what I understand, it was meant to provoke the saved to reach the lost, and to remind the lost about the penalty of their life of rejecting Christ. The "gospel" (or "good news") is that the end of such a life can be changed by reaching out to the One who created us.

thanks for the last quote Ccchhhrrriiisss. Trust me I am not on this site to start a fire with my own brothers. I normally just come to this site to listen to the word. My mother and I were backslidden Saints or I should say not christian at all. And preachers like Rolfe Barnard, David Wilkerson, and Paul Washer have changed my life from living for myself and living for the salvation of man showing me the error of my way. This was not posted to scare anyone but for us as believers to live a holy lifestyle and to witness to the unsaved not exactly with the video but with the knowledge we have of the coming judgement.
