Quote:

"God will judge you on account of them. It is true that every pleasure you get apart from Christ, God will judge you on account of it. Look at Ecclesiastes 11:9: "Rejoice, O young man, in thy youth, and let thy heart cheer thee in the days of thy youth, and walk in the ways of thine heart, and in the sight of thine eyes; but know thou, that for all these things God will bring thee into judgment." God will bring you into judgment for every godless word, for every idle word, for every enjoyment and pleasure you get apart from Christ. O brethren! is it true that you are living unpardoned? Is it true that you are happy - that you can enjoy social company that you can enjoy your games -that you can enjoy your dance? Is it true, sinner, that you are happy away from God, and thinkest thou that God will not bring you into judgment? Can you throw so much contempt on Christ, on his blood, on his righteousness, on his free offer of mercy, and think that God will not bring you into judgment? You say very often, "What is the harm? It is a social company - an innocent pleasure: what is the harm?" I will tell you the harm, you are despising Christ, you are despising the blood shed on Calvary, and finding your pleasures away from him, and is it not contempt of Christ to find your pleasures away from him, even supposing your pleasures had no sin in them? I do not now stop to enquire whether they are right or wrong; it is such infinite contempt of Christ, that I wonder God does not open the ground where you dance - when you have your mirth, and let you fall through into hell." -Robert Murray McCheyne
