Happy birthday to my brother on the other side of the world!!

It is a great privilege to know you Kire. You are truly a blessing to the SI family.

My prayer for you is this:

that He would grant you, according to the riches of His glory, to be strengthened with might through His Spirit in the inner man, that Christ may dwell in your hearts through faith; that you, being rooted and grounded in love, may be able to comprehend with all the saints what is the width and length and depth and height-- to know the love of Christ which passes knowledge; that you may be filled with all the fullness of God. Ephesians 3:16-19

Kire,

Happy Birthday my friend, you have been and still are a blessing.

Re:, on: 2007/9/24 10:03

Brother Kire,

I don't yet know the significance of a natural birthday. I haven't been celebrating mine for a while, although in years past, when I didn't know the Lord, birthdays were by default a season of ungodly revelry. Now that Charlene brought it up, however, I see that your birthday definitely is something to be thankful for: that God granted you life, forming you in your mother's womb, and let you dwell on this earth, brother, according to His good pleasure. This is something worth celebrating.

Yet it is incomparable to what God has done for you in Christ--when you were born from above, not from a corruptible seed, but incorruptible, brother! (Wow, I realized I didn't know which birth our sister had in mind.) For in Christ the natural was replaced with the supernatural; the temporal with the eternal. The old man, born in the flesh, died in Christ and then rose with Him. Thus all things became new.

May this time remind you how far the Lord has brought you along in your walk, Kire. May He also compel you to look to Him--forward and not backward, brother. May you celebrate as is pleasing to our Heavenly Father, in Spirit and in Truth--may you celebrate "Christ in you, the hope of glory."

May God bless you richly, my friend. May He strengthen you by His Spirit in the inward man, that you may lack nothing. May the anointing of each day be fresh upon you, for His life is not imparted once and for all, but over and over again with the coming of each morning.

In the love of Christ,
Slavyan

Happy Birthday!

Re: Happy Birthday!, on: 2007/9/24 13:45

Dear Brother Kire, I only 'know' you from the "Devotional Thoughts" that you've posted here and there and have been thoroughly blessed by your posts and your spirit.

Can't help but echo Slavyan's words here with a hearty amen.

Dear brothers and sisters,

I really don't know what to say, I didn't expect that at all.

I want all of you to know that I met very precious brothers and sisters in you.
I thank God that I know you, I thank God for sermonindex!

Many of you have been with me in my trials, sufferings, weepings and joys in the Lord through these years, especially in the last one and also in my college years abroad, when sometimes SI was only encouragement.

May we all grow in the knowledge, grace, mercy of our Lord Jesus Christ, who bought us with His precious blood!

I want everyone of you to meet one day in heaven and to worship together our Heavenly Father!

This would be a glorious day, isn't it?

9 After this I beheld, and, lo, a great multitude, which no man could number, of all nations, and kindreds, and people, and tongues, stood before the throne, and before the Lamb, clothed with white robes, and palms in their hands;

10 And cried with a loud voice, saying, Salvation to our God which sitteth upon the throne, and unto the Lamb.

11 And all the angels stood round about the throne, and about the elders and the four beasts, and fell before the throne on their faces, and worshipped God, 12 Saying, Amen: Blessing, and glory, and wisdom, and thanksgiving, and honour, and power, and might, be unto our God for ever and ever. Amen.

13 And one of the elders answered, saying unto me, What are these which are arrayed in white robes? and whence came they?

14 And I said unto him, Sir, thou knowest. And he said to me, These are they which came out of great tribulation, and have washed their robes, and made them white in the blood of the Lamb.

Hallelujah, Amen.

Thank you again sermonindex family,
your unprofitable servant,
Kire

p.s. I am making 25 today.

Brother, the Lord give you many, many more years. May you grow in deeper knowledge of God, in the fellowship of His sufferings, and in the joy of the redeemed. I have been blessed to know you.
