Today is thanksgiving in Canada;

I thank God for Keeping me and my family safe through out the last year.

I thank God for His mercy when, I deserve wrath.

I thank God for his long suffering, because I'm slow to learn.

I thank God for His provision, even in the dry land.

I thank Him for all of you on S.I. even though we may not agree at times.

Have a blessed thanksgiving all you Canadians, and God bless all of you.

love IN CHRIST tom
