For those of you, who cannot watch the live webcast through the site of christian.tv (as me), you can watch it by opening Windows Media Player

File-->Open URL (or just shortcut ctrl+U)

and copy and paste this link:

http://christiantv.edgeboss.net/wmedia-live/christiantv/25669/300_christiantv-tgtrc1_071016.asx

If this links will be changing, I will update it.

I was unable to watch the live webcast through my Firefox browser, but no problems at all by using IE.

Thought this might also help some

I was watching in on Christian.tv but I couldn't adjust the size it was either 2 by 2 inches or my whole screen!

so I plugged in your link and it works and even looks better.

Thank you so much!!

Hi Lisa,

There's a tiny arrow in the lowest righthand corner of the Christian.tv window, which is where you can adjust the size of the screen. I have it fixed through the Custom option, at 260%.

Live webcast is going on right now.

Re:, on: 2007/10/24 13:39

There has been a slight change with the schedule, the afternoon session will start at 2:30pm, and the evening session will be at the same time, 7pm. Tomorrow morning starts at 9am with Roger Ellsworth, and Richard Siple will be speaking from 10:30-11. And I'm not sure if the afternoon session will be at 2:30 or 3. I hope everyone has been following the live webcast. These men are coming with burning hearts with a word from God.

Keep praying and seeking God!
