

Miracles that follow the plow :: Prayer request for David

Prayer request for David - posted by ChrisJD (), on: 2007/11/22 13:48

Dear friends,

Please pray for a man named David that i just met. I had gone out to walk and meditate and as I was going I saw a man sitting across the street on a bench near a Church.

As I went on I felt as though I should go back and talk to him. he said he ws technically homeless and that he felt he needed to be near church grounds today. He also said he felt it was better for him not to be eating today. He seemed to indicate that something was pending today, for him?

He seemed down for sure.

Please pray for him,

Chris

Hello brother Chris,

Did you have any more contact with David?

I did actually.

Think it was the next day I saw him on the same bench. He said he did end up taking some food and when I asked him about his alluding to something pending in his life he said something about his still being here, on the bench?

But I think he meant that it was a good thing whatever the case was.

So all in all I think it was good and thanks to God for anyone that offered prayers for him. Perhaps I will see him again.

God's love to you in Jesus.
